

INTRODUCTION TO THE LITERATURE, HISTORY,
AND RELIGION OF ISRAEL (11)

UNIT 6

FOREWORD:

For this Course you will need an exercise book or loose-leaf binder, and a Bible. It is suggested that you use the New International Version (NIV) or New Revised Standard Version (NRSV). For more detailed information on subjects for study, reference should be made to:

The New Bible Commentary (Revised)
The New Bible Dictionary
The Lion Handbook to the Bible
W.S. La Sor et al., Old Testament Survey

The work is divided into 10 lessons on the following plan:

1. From Theocracy to Kingdom
2. The Kingdom of David
3. The United Kingdom Divides
4. The Kingdom of Israel
5. The Rise of the Prophets
6. Kingdom of Judah
7. The Prophets of Judah
8. The Post-Exilic Period
9. The Poetry of the Old Testament
10. The Wisdom Literature of the Old Testament

This Unit consists of 10 lessons with 5 questions for each lesson.

Answers should be done on paper (separate to these notes) and be approximately 1 paragraph to half a page in length.

Send answers in two sections i.e. Lessons 1-5 and Lessons 6-10. Thank you.

A glossary is included at the back of the study notes to help with unfamiliar words.
